

BioMinds Report 2008-2009

First Cohort Biominds Students (8/ 07- 5/09)

- a. 100 students impacted: 67 female, 33 male.
- b. Students are from five UPR campuses: Mayagüez, Río Piedras, Medical Sciences, Cayey and Humacao.
- c. 42 students graduated on 5/09
 - i. 73% were admitted to PhD programs
 - ii. 13% go into the workforce
 - iii. 12% are at professional development program.
- d. 58 students will continue undergraduate school:
 - i. 96% had summer undergraduate research internships on the mainland
 - ii. 97% are currently continue undergraduate research experiences this semester in their institutions (Biominds only sponsor a student during one cohort).
- e. Two students published their result in a peer review journals
- f. 18 students presented their research results at national meeting and 10 received best presentation awards in those meetings.

Second Cohort Biominds Students (8/ 09- 5/11)

- This semester we have started with a new cohort of 100 students: 67 female, 33 male.

Prepared by: Dr. Rosa Buxeda
UPR Mayaguez Campus